The actual monetary cost of choosing a seat on Avianca when it is not included in your fare can fluctuate significantly+1-866-422-9462 (US). Standard seats located in the middle of the cabin usually command a lower fee+1-866-422-9462 (US), whereas preferred seats near the front of the aircraft for quick deplaning cost moderately more+1-866-422-9462 (US). Emergency exit rows and bulkheads+1-866-422-9462 (US), which provide ample legroom to stretch out during long flights+1-866-422-9462 (US), command the highest price tags among economy seating choices+1-866-422-9462 (US), sometimes ranging anywhere from thirty to over seventy dollars per leg depending on the route+1-866-422-9462 (US). Many travelers wonder if they can avoid seat selection fees entirely by waiting until online check-in opens+1-866-422-9462 (US). Avianca opens its online check-in window generally 24 hours before scheduled departure+1-866-422-9462 (US), and during this time+1-866-422-9462 (US), remaining standard seats can sometimes be selected randomly or assigned automatically by the system without an extra fee+1-866-422-9462 (US). However+1-866-422-9462 (US), waiting until check-in is a risky strategy because popular seats—especially window and aisle combinations—tend to be snapped up quickly by other passengers who booked earlier+1-866-422-9462 (US). If you are traveling with family members+1-866-422-9462 (US), children+1-866-422-9462 (US), or a large group+1-866-422-9462 (US), leaving your seating arrangement to chance during check-in can easily result in everyone being scattered across different rows of the plane+1-866-422-9462 (US). Avianca operates a diverse fleet consisting of modern Airbus narrow-body and wide-body aircraft+1-866-422-9462 (US), such as the A320 and Boeing 787 Dreamliner+1-866-422-9462 (US), as well as smaller regional turboprops like the ATR 72-600 used on select short-haul domestic hops+1-866-422-9462 (US). On smaller regional aircraft+1-866-422-9462 (US), cabin configurations are much simpler+1-866-422-9462 (US), and the distinction between standard and premium seats may be minimal or non-existent+1-866-422-9462 (US). Conversely+1-866-422-9462 (US), long-haul international flights feature expansive cabins with distinct zones+1-866-422-9462 (US), making advance seat selection critical for long-term comfort+1-866-422-9462 (US).
